

Republic day Celebrations 2015

The 67th republic day of India was celebrated in the college on behalf of the NSS. The program began with Flag hoisting which was done by our Principal Dr Sudha Balagopalan which was followed by the republic day message from principal. Then we had the NSS song sung and sweet distribution. A session was handled by our SENA member Anjana Sasidharan who was a Republic Day parade member of 2015. She shared the experience of marching in front of some of the greatest personalities of the world. A small presentation was organized by the volunteers about E waste management. Our respected Principal Dr Sudha Balagopalan also made a presentation on E waste management and its benefits to the society. Next , a session was organized by GENSIS camp members about gender inequality .The volunteers were asked to make a street play on topic

Gender Inequality. The celebrations ended with lowering the National Flag along with National Anthem being sung.
