

Literacy day celebrations 2015

On 8th September 2015, literacy day was celebrated by the NSS units of the college. The international theme for world literacy day 2015 was "Literacy and Sustainable Societies". Programme officer Mr Anil M and Volunteer Secretary C J Athul Shankar spoke about the importance of literacy in the society. The NSS volunteers were divided into ten groups and each group made a poster and presented it. Powerpoint presentations were also made by different groups.
