

Students day celebration 2015

World's first Students day was celebrated on 15th October 2015. Programme officer Ms Aswathy spoke about the importance of technology in the most modern world and emphasised on the point that NSS volunteers should concentrate more on technical projects. By doing technical projects, both the volunteers and community are benefited. Pledge was taken to fight against violence and shared the great thoughts of A P J Abdul Kalam.