

Report On Bosch Vidya Jcp First Batch Roll Out

BOSCH VIDYA JCP first batch training was held between 27-01-2017 to 28-01-2017. 24 students were registered for the session

The session started with a silent prayer.

BOSCH JCP convener Mr Hareesh K, AP ME, Welcomed the participants and speakers. Mr Dileep K, HOD ME deliver the special address to students and explained about the need and relevance of add-on- course. Dr Latha Raj, Director (SWS) address the audience and explained about the job opportunities in and around the globe. The session is scheduled for two days and the modules covered in the session are

1. Vehicle Air conditioning Systems and Functions
2. Training of Auto Motive Battery

Day 1 training programme was on Vehicle Air conditioning Systems and Functions, morning session was fully concentrated to basics and theory of vehicle air conditioning and afternoon session followed by practical classes

Day 2 training programme was on testing on automotive battery. In this module, more concentration given to practical side of maintenance and service of automotive battery

Two day session was highly interactive and practical oriented. A test was conducted on last day related to session modules. Refreshments and lunch were arranged for both days

The two day training programme was fully handled by in-house trainers and the session came to an end by 4.30PM, Saturday (28-01-2017) followed by valedictory function. Evaluation form were circulated and taken the feedback. Some students shared their two day experience and the feedback was excellent. Mr Midhun P (AP,ME),Co Convener, BOSCH JCP, delivered the vote of thanks.

BOSCH team members Mr Rahul,AP, ME and Mr Sugunan, TI, ME workshop assisted the in-house trainers during the session.

