

One day workshop on “Sustainable Construction, Environment and Climate Change”

One day workshop on “Sustainable Construction, Environment and Climate Change” organized by Laurie Baker International School of Habitat Studies (LaBISHaS) & Kerala State Nirmithi Kendra (KESNIK), Government of Kerala was conducted on 19/04/2017 Wednesday at the main seminar hall of Vidya Academy of Science and Technology, Thrissur under the Industry Institute Interaction Cell of Department of Civil Engineering.

The inaugural ceremony was followed by three technical sessions by eminent personalities in the field of Sustainable construction. The first session was handled by Ar. M.R. Pramod Kumar, Architect on the topic “Sustainable Architecture”. The second session was handled by Dr. P.M Rafeekh, Prof. of Geology, Retd. from Govt. Engineering College, Thrissur on the topic “Environment and Health”. The last session was handled by Prof. V.K. Lakshmanan Nair, Zonal Coordinator, KESNIK on the topic "Cost Effective and Environment Friendly Construction".