

Farewell to Subramanian N K, Foreman

The College bid farewell to Mr Subramanian N K, Foreman, in a brief function held in the Principal's Office on 30.06.2017. Mr Subramanian was retiring on superannuation from the College after more than eight years of meritorious service. The heads of all academic and non-academic Departments participated in the function. Principal Dr Sudha Balagopalan, Vice-Principal Dr V N Krishnachandran, Dr V Jayaraman, Head of ME Dept, Mr Velayudhan, WS Supdt., Mr Paul Chakola, Head of T&P cell, and others who spoke on the occasion reminisced about Mr Subramanian's exemplary contributions to the development of College infrastructure, and his extra-ordinary love and affection towards students. On behalf of the Vidya family, the Principal wished him and his family a happy, healthy and prosperous post-retirement life. Mr Subramanian thanked all for honouring him by organising such a function.