

NSS volunteers distribute food packets at Snehalayam

The NSS units of of the College organised a visit to Snehalayam, an old age home, located at Mundathikode, Thrissur, on 28.09.2017. As many as 50 NSS Volunteers along with Mr. Anil M. and Ms. Mahalakshmy A. (NSS Programme Officers) visited the old age home. The volunteers distributed food packets, brought by students of the College, to the 350 inmates of Snehalayam. They interacted with the inmates and mingled with them. It was a great experience for the volunteers and the visit gave them an opportunity to understand the problems faced by old people.
