

Legal literacy classes for third semester students held

The Anti-ragging Committee of the College organised a legal literacy class for the third semester students of all streams on 27.10.2017 from 11 AM to 01 PM at College Auditorium. The main resource person for the class was Adv. K S Sandeep, Taluk Legal Services Authority (TLSA).

The programme was conducted as a part of the anti-ragging campaign in the College and it was initiated by TLSA. The programme was also aimed at spreading awareness on legal issues relevant to the students' community in general.
