

NSS volunteers distribute greeting cards created by autistic children

The NSS volunteers of the College collected “Greeting Cards” created by autistic children and distributed to faculty and staff members of the College on 23.12.2017. The artistic depictions in the greeting cards were representatives of the heights of creativity that could be attained when students with autism were appropriately engaged and supported.