

Dr Justine C Jose assumes charge as Head of CE Dept

Dr Justine C Jose, currently serving Vidya as Professor of Civil Engineering, has assumed charge as Professor and Head of CE Dept with effect from 01 August 2018. He succeeds Prof K V Leela who has stepped down from her position as Professor and Head of CE Dept to spend more quality time with her family. Prof K V Leela will be continuing in the service of Vidya as Professor of Civil Engineering.

Dr Justine C Jose took his B Tech degree from Govt. Engineering College, Thrissur, M Tech from College of Engineering, Thiruvananthapuram, and Ph D from NIT Calicut. After spending nine years in industry, Dr Justine joined Vidya's service as a Site Engineer in 2002 even before the College started functioning. Later, when the College started functioning, he joined the College as a faculty member and steadily rose in positions till he was appointed as Professor in 2016.
