

Experts explain: How to write research papers and project proposals

It was not a programme for veterans who have ample experience in writing research papers and project proposals. It was for the novices who were climbing the first steps of a career in teaching and research. It was a programme conceptualised and organised under the initiative of Dr Sudha Balagopalan, Dean-Academics.

It was a one-day programme on “Writing research papers and project proposals for funding” organised by Dr Sudha Balagopalan, Dean-Academics, on 20 December 2018.
