

Season's greetings from News & Events

The members of the Editorial Team of News & Events wish to convey to all readers their best wishes for a happy, prosperous and healthy New Year. "May the warmth and peace of this Holiday Season be yours today and always. May the peace and joy of the season be yours throughout the New Year. May your holidays be merry and bright."

A little learning: "Season's greetings" is a greeting more commonly used as a motto on winter season greeting cards, and in commercial advertisements, than as a spoken phrase. In addition to "Merry Christmas", Victorian Christmas cards bore a variety of salutations, including "compliments of the season" and "Christmas greetings." By the late 19th century, "with the season's greetings" or simply "the season's greetings" began appearing. By the 1920s it had been shortened to "season's greetings," and has been a greeting card fixture ever since. Several White House Christmas cards, including U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower's 1955 card, have featured the phrase. (Wikipedia)
