CSE student selected as Lead for Google Developer Student Club

Mr Hemanth Janesh (S6 B Tech CSE A) has been selected as Lead of the Google Developer Student Club (DSC) community for Vidya campus. Developer Student Club (DSC) is a Google Developers program for university students to learn mobile and web development skills. Google collaborates with university students who are passionate about growing developer communities and supports them with starting student clubs on their campuses. Developer Student Clubs train thousands of student developers globally and work with their communities to solve real-life problems. DSC is having 172 Leads representing 172 colleges, spread across 90+ cities and 22 states, and pursuing various majors ranging across CS, IT, Electrical, Electronics and more.

A Lead of the Club is expected to

- organize and teach mobile development to fellow students,
- enable more students to be trainers and support them in conducting sessions,
- identify local organizations that can benefit from mobile solutions, and facilitate solution development initiatives, and
- host showcases and other sessions to highlight the solutions.
