

KSLSA holds legal literacy classes for second year BTech students

With the help of Kerala State Legal Services Authority (KSLSA), the Anti-ragging Committee of Vidya organised a legal literacy class for the second year B Tech students on 25 March 2019 from 11.15 AM to 01 PM at the College Auditorium. Adv Jose Peter from Taluk Legal Services Authority (TLSA) was the resource person for the class. The programme was conducted as a part of the anti-ragging campaign in the state initiated by TLSA. The programme was also aimed at spreading awareness on legal issues relevant to the student community in general.
