

NSS volunteers give a helping hand to kidney patients

A team of around 40 NSS Volunteers of Vidya came together on 26 March 2019 to make mango pickle. Fr Davis Chirammel, Chairman, Kidney Federation of India, gave the necessary guidance in the preparation of the pickle. The objective of the programme was to help people suffering from kidney ailments by providing them an economic activity which might generate a viable income with some help from the NSS volunteers.

