The NSS units of Vidya organized Punarjani works at various Government hospitals in Thrissur District. On 13 October 2019, a group of 37 NSS Volunteers organized a programme at District General Hospital, Thrissur. As part of the programme, the volunteers carried out painting and repairing of equipments in the hospital. It was a programme to provide better comfort and clean environment for the patients admitted there. The Hospital management and staff appreciated the initiative from students. Similar Punarjani works were also organized at Government Hospital, Kunnankulam, Primary Health Centre, Velur and Government Mental Hospital, Thrissur.
