

NSS units organize “Pararaksha”

On 23 October 2019, the NSS units of Vidya organized a programme named “Ppararaksha” in association with the doctors and technicians of Daya Hospital, Thrissur, at EEE Seminar Hall. A team of 51 volunteers participated in this program. The importance of first aid in saving one’s life and the way it had to be performed was demonstrated by the Pararaksha team. The students were made to practice the way how cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) was given appropriately.
