

Dr. Raju C K

New Nodal Officer for IEDC

The Principal has appointed Dr Raju C K (Professor, Computer Science & Engineering Dept) as the Nodal Officer of IEDC (Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Centre). Dr Raju will assume the new responsibility with effect from 1 February 2020. The Editorial Team of News & Events wishes all success to Dr Raju in his new responsibility.

Dr Raju is taking over the responsibility of IEDC after incumbent Nodal Officer Ms Swapana E V M has given a strong foundation and footing for IEDC in Vidya. The Editorial Team recalls the several stories relating to her untiring efforts to inculcate a culture of innovation in Vidya against several odds that have appeared in these pages. The Team invites all readers to peruse these stories collected in a page of this newsletter exclusively devoted to IEDC which can be accessed HERE. The Editorial Team joins the whole institution in thanking her for her great contributions in making the IEDC in Vidya what it is today.
