

New academic year begins amidst COVID-19 induced Lockdown

HAPPY NEW SEMESTER

Academic activities in all colleges affiliated to APJAKTU resumed on 17 August 2020 in spite of the COVID-19 induced lockdown in several parts of the State. However, since there are strict restrictions on resuming classes in the normal mode, the students and teachers are engaging in academic activities in the online mode.

Semester flag-off meeting

To set the agenda and targets for performance, the Principal convened a meeting of all faculty and staff of the College on 17 August 2020 through the Google Meet platform. Er G Mohanachandran, Executive Director, and Mr Suresh Lal, Administration and Finance Director, participated in the proceedings as special invitees. After a formal welcome speech by Dr V N Krishnachandran, Vice-principal, the Principal explained in much detail the targets for the current semester.

One highlight of the talk by the Principal was the presentation of the the necessity of working in a mission mode. In this context, the mantra of “Mission – 35” was propounded which essentially was about working to be among the top 35 colleges in terms of various university examination results. The various milestones to be covered during this academic year were also explained in detail. Dr Sudha Balagopalan, Dean – Academics, spoke about the various ongoing webinars organised by different entities associated with the College.

Semester flag-off meeting of the odd semester of 2019 – 20

Principal flags off odd semester of new academic year
