

Updates to National Conference on Advances in Computing Technology 2020

Last week, the News & Events reported the announcement of “National Conference on Advances in Computing Technology (NC–ACT 2020)” being organised by the MCA Dept of the College in the online mode during 3 – 4 December 2020. The Organising Committee of the Conference has set up a website for disseminating information about the Conference. The website can be accessed at the following link: bit.ly/NC-ACT2020

Here are some other updates on the Conference supplied by the Organising Committee of the Conference:

Special features

- A special talk on patents in software technology to be delivered by an expert who has had a decade of experience in handling patents in a MNC

- A post conference talk on “Ramanujan in Computing” on 5 December 2020

Highlights

- No registration fee for participation and for presenting papers
- e-Certificates for all registered participants who attend the Conference
- Research/Review/Study papers are welcome
- Open to research scholars and faculty members of Computer Applications/Science/Technology Depts in Colleges
- Open to post-graduate students of Computer Applications/Science/Technology also
- High profile keynote speakers

Dates/Deadline

- Registration opens: 28 October 2020
- Registration closes: 11 November 2020
- Submission of full paper: 23 November 2020
- Acceptance notification: 27 November 2020
- NC-ACT 2020 : 3 – 04 December 2020
- Post-Conference talk: 05 December 2020
- Submission in IEEE format: 11 December 2020
- Publication of Proceedings: TBA

Important information

- Submit papers to: nc-act2020@vidyaacademy.ac.in
- Registration link: bit.ly/NC-ACT2020-Registration
- Link to Conference website: bit.ly/NC-ACT2020
- Links for talks and paper presentations: TBA

