

TCS conducts NQT for the 2021 pass out batch

The logo for TCS-NQT, featuring the letters T, C, S, N, Q, and T in a stylized, white, outlined font against a dark blue background.

The TCS campus recruitment drive for the 2021 pass out batch was held across the country during 24 – 26 October 2020. Students had an option to take the test online from their home or at the TCS iON centers. Taking into consideration the prevailing pandemic regulations only limited seats were provided to the students at the campus to participate in the process. A few of the students availed the facility and participated in the process from the campus by following the necessary protocols and taking the necessary precautions.
