

ECE faculty member participates in Guinness World Records Attempt

MR RAMESH CR

Mr Ramesh C R (AP, ECE Dept) received participation certificate for the Guinness Record Attempt.

Madras-incubated startup GUVI was collaborating with the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) to upskill 10 lakh Indians in coding through a one-day free workshop called 'AI-For-India 1.0'. The event was expected to set the world record for the largest coding workshop conducted online. Targeted towards students, IT professionals, and anyone in the age group of 8 to 80 years interested in coding, the event was conducted on April 24, 2021. Mr Ramesh C R participated in the event though he could not complete it. However the organisers appreciated his enthusiasm by awarding him a certificate for participation in the Guinness World Records Attempt.

RECORD PARTICIPATION

Organised by GUVI GEEK NETWORK PRIVATE LIMITED
& AICTE-INDIA on 24th April 2021

RAMESH C R

Thank you for your participation in the
GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS™ attempt for
Most users to take an online computer programming lesson in 24 hours

OFFICIAL ATTEMPT

Guinness World Records' the circular 'Star and Pedestal' logo [and 'Officially Amazing'] are trademarks of Guinness World Records Limited (an English company with company number 541295). This digital participation award is the copyright of Guinness World Records Limited, which hereby reserves all other rights.