

ME students distribute Onam kits to college maintenance staff

The ME students of the College did an exemplary thing this Onam season and thereby set an example for others to emulate. The students presented to the members of the maintenance staff of the College special kits containing rice and provisions. Mr Sarath Babu (AP, ME Dept) distributed the kits in a function held in the College. A few representative students were also present on the occasion.

---