

Library staff bids farewell to their colleague Mr Ajith K A

A small programme was organised in the Central Library of the College on 30 March 2022 to bid farewell to Mr Ajith K A, a staff member of the Library. During the function, the Library staff presented Mr Ajith a memento as a token of their love and regards to him.

Mr Ajith had joined Vidya as a staff in the year 2010 and since then he had been working very sincerely in the library services. In 2018 he was assigned the responsibility of managing the Common Computer Centre of the College.
