

Regular Classes of the present Even Semester conclude

Regular classes of the present even semester for under APJ Abdul Kalam University came to an end on 12 August 2022. This was as per the academic calendar published by the University.

The dedicated members of staff have been extending all possible supports which help the students for navigating through their subjects in an organized way.

We sincerely believe that, all positive reinforcement from our faculty members will help Vidya students stay motivated and focused for the upcoming University Examination.
