

Vidya NSS units bag Blood Donation Organisation Award 2022

Vidya NSS Units have always sensitized the needs of the society and this time they have been honored by receiving an award for the active participation in blood donation conducted by IMA Blood Bank.

NSS units of Vidya received the award for the NSS units that contributed the highest number of blood donations during the camp organized by IMA Blood Bank, Thrissur and Joy Alukkas Foundation, Thrissur on 01 October 2022. The programme was as part of voluntary blood donation day and the inauguration was done by Mr Lal Kumar (Thrissur Circle Inspector). A felicitation meeting was also arranged in the Principal's Cabin to the NSS volunteers. Dr Saji C B (Principal, VAST) conveyed his appreciation to all involved in this noble mission. Mr Rajesh S K (NSS Programme Officer and Asso Prof, EEE Dept) also attended the function.

The Editorial Team of News & Events joins the entire Vidya family in extending hearty appreciations to the volunteers of NSS units and Programme Officers on this remarkable achievement which inculcate the feeling of helping others to breathe life with their valued donation .

