

Hearty congratulations to Dr Nisha A B on her hard-earned Doctorate Degree

The strength of PhD holders have increased in leaps and bounds in the past few years in Vidya. Securing a Ph.D. degree is a big stepping stone towards an academic bright future that requires incredible amount of hard work and dedication. It is with great pleasure and honor that we share one more addition to Vidya's growing pool of PhD holders .

Ms Nisha A B (Asso Prof, App Sc Dept) successfully defended her PhD thesis titled "Morphological Nearness and Approximations in Mathematical Morphology" on 20 October 2022. Dr Nisha completed her PhD from CUSAT under the supervision of Dr. Sasi Gopalan (Professor, Department of Mathematics, CUSAT) with remarkable credentials.

The Editorial Team of News & Events joins the entire Vidya family in extending Heartiest Congratulations to Dr Nisha as she embarks on a new and exciting episode and wishing her all the very Best to lead to the embodiment of her scholastic journey!
