

CSE Dept offers gracious and cordial welcome to the Freshers (2022 – 26 Batch)

To build confidence and to add creativity to their levels, continuing with the proud tradition of the CSE Dept, senior students and newcomers joined with each other at the fresher's welcome party on 04 November 2022 in their classrooms. It was the stepping stone towards years of unity and a journey of self-discovery.

The program started with a welcome speech by Dr Ramani Bai V (HoD, CSE Dept) followed by the introduction of the association team of the Dept. Mr. Mohammed Siyad M A (S7 CSE B and President, CSE Association) and Mr. Emmanuel Nevil Babu (S7 CSE and Secretary of CSE Association) enlightened the occasion with their speeches and welcomed the juniors. Ms Joshna Joshy (S7 CSE and Treasurer, CSE Association) too took a moment on the stage to express her heartfelt welcome.

The newcomers were also addressed by Dr Beena M V (Asst Prof, CSE Dept), Ms Jucy Vareed (Association Head and Asst Prof, CSE Dept), Ms Mahalakshmy A (Association Head and Asst Prof, CSE Dept) and Mr Shine P Xavier (Association Treasurer and Asst Prof, CSE Dept) The group tutors of the first year CSE bathes (2022 – 26), Mr. Shine P Xavier (Asst Prof, CSE Dept), Ms Neethu P R (Asst Prof, CSE Dept), and Ms. Athulya Bhaskar K R (Asst Prof, CSE Dept), arranged the welcome party in respective classrooms and extended their wholehearted support for the smooth conduct of the function.

The freshers were given refreshments, greeting cards and notebooks as welcome gifts. It was an ice breaking session that created a bond between the students and laid the foundation of years of togetherness. Meenakshi M, Anagha and Yadhu Krishna on behalf of the first years expressed their sincere gratitude for being welcomed with such warmth.

The session gave room to the newcomers to build a rapport with their batch mates, seniors and faculty members become part of the Vidya fraternity.

